

LAST YEAR FOR GIRLS BASKETBALL IN OHIO

Pandora Times – November 30, 1939

This is the last year for inter-high school basketball for girls in the state of Ohio. Many are discussing the advantages of inaugurating a comparatively new sport for rural communities in the game of hockey. This sport has been played in city schools for a number of years.

Girls may become football players as an Alabama girl became a star place kicker for extra points. For her school, she boosted gate receipts 100 per cent.
