

Sunday Baseball Legal in Ohio

Leipsic Free Press – May 18, 1911

Sunday afternoon baseball is now legal in the state of Ohio, Governor Harmon having failed to sign or veto the Greeves Bill striking Sunday afternoon baseball from the penal code. In case city councils, under the provision of the bill, refuse to grant permission to play Sunday afternoon ball games, they can be played outside the city limits, township authorities having no authority to interfere.
