

Vaughnsville in First Place

Tournament Decided by Even Dozen Hot Games

Putnam County Sentinel – February 29, 1924

The Vaughnsville boys were successful in the Putnam County tournament held at the Ottawa Armory Friday and Saturday this week.

In the final game with Continental, the boys from the south marched to victory by a one basket margin. The score was 13 to 11.

Vaughnsville won from Miller City and from Columbus Grove before the final round.

Columbus Grove won its first game from Crawfis College 8 to 6, but lost to Vaughnsville 8 to 10.

Continental won from Leipsic in the first round and from Ottawa in its second game 11 to 8.

Ottawa went to the semi-finals with a victory over Glandorf but lost out to the strong boys from out Continental way.
