As an added feature to the Putnam County Tournament, a foul shooting contest was started. One of the more detailed comments about the number of fans attending this tournament was a quote from the Putnam County Gazette. "The crowd was so large that the playing floor had to be narrowed down to give standing room from the audience."

The Continental boy's basketball team took a forfeit loss in the PCT because of an epidemic. A boy's foul shooting contest was run in conjunction with the PCT. Virgil Parsons of Vaughnsville and Woodrow Little of Ottawa Public were the two winners. They advanced to Bowling Green plus the three qualifiers of the tournament.
