The Continental girl's basketball team took a forfeit loss in the PCT because of an outbreak of scarlet fever. A boy's foul shooting contest was run in conjunction with the PCT. Virgil Parsons of Vaughnsville and Woodrow Little of Ottawa Public were the two winners. They advanced to the Bowling Green district.

The score between Palmer and Crawfis College was tied at the end of regulation 19-19. The tie breaker was that the center and a forward from each team would shoot two free throws each. Crawfis College's team made 3 out of 4 and Palmer's team made 1 out of 4. The final score was 22-20 in Crawfis College's favor. This was also the first year the PCT was played at Leipsic High School.
