

Kalida Golf Champs

1993 PCL Tournament

Putnam County Sentinel

Tuesday's weather was not ideal conditions for a golfer.

Kalida put aside the weather conditions at the Country Acres Golf Course and played some very consistent golf to win the Putnam County league title for the fifth straight year.

The Wildcats shot a team total of 325 for the win, while Ottoville was the runner-up with a 350 total. Third was Columbus Grove at 368 followed by Fort Jennings at 380, Miller City at 412, Continental at 436 and Pandora-Gilboa at 443.

Medalist for the PCL meet was Kalida sophomore Chad Ehrnsberger with a 77 (38-39).

Following Ehrnsberger was senior Andy Williams with an 81 (41-40) to tie for second place. Next was Doug Rampe with an 83 (42-41), followed by John Heckman with an 84 (41-43) and Ryan Turnwald turned in an 85 (40-45).

Ottoville's Matt Hilvers tied for second place with an 81 (39-42), Mark Schnipke had an 87 (44-43), Brad Honigford had a 90 (44-46), Joe Niedecken had a 92 (47-45) and Brad Martz had a 101 (52-49).

Taking first team PCL honors at the meet was Kalida's Chad Ehrnsberger, John Heckman, Andy Williams, Doug Rampe and Ryan Turnwald along with Ottoville's Matt Hilvers and Columbus Grove's Neil Schaublin.

On the second team were Fort Jennings's Ryan VonSossan and Ryan Vetter, Ottoville's Mark Schnipke and Brad Honigford and Columbus Grove's Mike Meffley.
